Week One

Library Tour: Class Discussion

Now that you have taking a look at the LBCC Library, can you describe any impressions you formed about the Library? If you were writing a paragraph about your experience, your topic sentence might read something like this:

Today, I took a tour of the LBCC Library and I noticed several interesting features.

DIRECTIONS: Take a moment to jot down some notes about the following:

- What did you observe when you walked in the library?

- Did it seem it confusing? If so why?

- What did you like about the library?

- What are some changes you might suggest for the library?

- Was there anything else that you noticed?
