

Facts On File: History Research Center (For Articles and Primary Sources on History)

- Click Articles Databases eBooks.
- Click on American History Online.
- Click on Search History Research

By clicking on Search History Research Center, you will be able to find sources on American and modern world history.

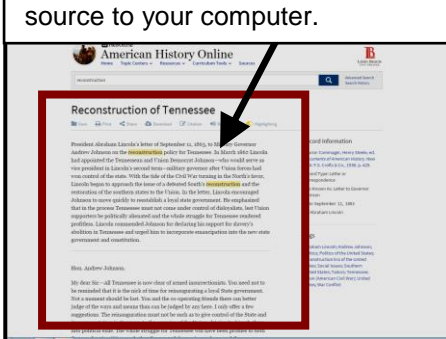

Search for sources by entering your key words into the box at the top of the page. Use the tabs to look for articles, primary sources, images, or videos.

By clicking on Primary Sources, you will be able to find primary sources in American and modern world history.

Clicking on any of the titles will allow you to view the primary source! At the top of the page there are options to email or save the source to your computer.

Emailing the source is the best option. You will be able to choose from the MLA, APA, or Chicago citation format.
