

Terrorism: At a Glance, a printable subject guide

What is Terrorism?

The calculated use of unlawful violence or threat of unlawful violence to inculcate fear; intended to coerce or to intimidate governments or societies in the pursuit of goals that are generally political, religious, or ideological. .

Finding Books about Terrorism @ LBCC Libraries:

- look under call numbers HV 6430-HV6433
- use the library's online catalog, Voyager and search under these subjects:

Terrorism
Terrorism and globalization
Insurgency
Subversive activities
Bioterrorism
Political terrorism

Cyberterrorism
Ecoterrorism
Chemical terrorism
Nuclear terrorism
Internet and terrorism
Victims of terrorism

Finding Articles in Journals and Newspapers:

From the library web page <http://lib.lbcc.edu/> connect to the following research databases to find articles

- ProQuest
- Opposing Viewpoints in Context
- SIRS Researcher
- CQ Researcher
- Historical Newspapers: New York Times
- Historical Newspapers: Los Angeles Times

To access these library databases from off-campus, remember to authenticate yourself first by clicking on the  button.

Finding Web Sites on Terrorism:

There are a wide range of web sites dealing with terrorism and terrorist organizations. Try the Global Terrorism Database <http://www.start.umd.edu/gtd/> as a good starting place.

For a more robust variety of resources, use our online Research Guide, and for additional help speak with a reference librarian at PCC or LAC libraries.