Click on “Articles Databases eBooks.” in order to find articles and topics for your research paper.
- Then click “Automotive Technology.”
- Click on “Auto Repair Reference (EBSCOhost).”

If you are not on campus...
- You need to enter your student number (without the “W”)
- and your last name.

You could search for a particular car or truck by selecting the car’s model year, manufacture, and model in this box.

C
- You will be able to select the specific vehicle.
- Click “Select.”

From here, you will be able to find information on the vehicle without leaving your computer!

E
DIAGRAMS: For example, here is the exterior lights on a 2007 Honda Civic LX.
- You will be able to print or save the chart to your computer from the blue links here.

Choose from:
- Repair Information:
- Bulletins:
- Diagrams:
- Specifications:
- Labor Times:
- Diagnostic Information:
- Maintenance:

F
Click on another link to take you to another section.
Accessing the Databases and e-Books (If You Are Off-Campus)

A. This is the Long Beach City College Library website.
   - At the top of the page, find the red tab "Articles Databases ebooks" and click

B. Click on "Automotive Technology" to find the most useful all-around databases available for you!
   or click "Most Popular" to find databases most often used by LBCC students!

C. If you are not on campus...
   - You need to enter your student number (without the "W")
   - and your last name.

D. After you enter your student number and last name (if you are off-campus) you will have full access to thousands of journal and magazine articles! From anywhere you are!

LABOR TIMES: You will be able to find how long it will take to replace brakes and other parts of the car!